

Washington's Birthday

Third Monday of February

Although this holiday is often called Presidents Day, it was created to honor our first president. Washington also is honored in many other ways, including a special monument named for him in Washington D.C.

monument

a building or structure built to honor someone

A monument in Plymouth remembers the Pilgrims.

Examples:

tombstone

statue

building

tower

